

Regarding dietary needs at UUFB events

While we are cognizant of many of the diverse dietary needs of Fellowship members and friends, we are willing to encourage full descriptions of ingredients at potlucks, but cannot be responsible for meeting everyone's dietary needs. Those with specific needs must make their own decisions on whether foods are appropriate for them and assume the risk if they choose to eat them. They are welcome to bring their own food to events if they feel the need to be sure of ingredients and/or preparation methods. (Email from Diane Knipfer, November 12, 2014, reporting on committee meeting November 11, 2014)