

Upcoming Sunday Services

November 3, 2019 • “To Thine Own Self Be True” • Guest Speaker: Kyndra Nevin

Today’s service will examine what it is like to live a portion of a lifetime in denial of true self and how destructive such an experience can be. It will also consider the benefits that result when the process of transformation to being one’s authentic self is allowed to occur.

November 10, 2019 • “Diamond Jubilee Commitment” • Lay Presenter: Peg Wherry

Traditionally the 60th anniversary is a Diamond Jubilee. The celebration of UUFB’s 60th anniversary continues as this Sunday’s service provides a chance for us all to commit to our future. We’ll sing, share, testify, and pledge our support to the Fellowship for the year ahead. Please bring your pledge form in the provided envelop for this “Diamond Jubilee Commitment Sunday.”

November 17, 2019 • “Demands on Our Attention” • Rev. Duffy Peet

Technological advances over the past few decades have made it possible to learn, almost instantaneously, what is occurring in another room, on the other side of town, across the country or even around the world. One result is that the demands on our attention have increased dramatically. How are we to cope with these increasing demands? How might we manage the competing demands so that what seems interesting or even urgent doesn’t obscure what is truly important?

November 24, 2019 • “Attending to Thankfulness” • Rev. Duffy Peet

With the Thanksgiving holiday just a few days away, this seems like an appropriate time to focus attention on what we are thankful for. With all of the strife and tragedy that is going on in our country and around the world we might neglect to make time to purposefully and consciously consider what we have to feel thankful for. Today we will attend to giving thanks. Our New Member Welcoming Ceremony will also take place at this service.

December 1, 2019 • “Attitudes of Gratitude” • Speakers to be announced

An attitude of gratitude means expressing thankfulness and appreciation in all parts of our lives for both the big and small things alike. Three members of our fellowship will share their thoughts about what an attitude of gratitude means to them based on their unique life experiences.

Minister Musings

minister@uufbozeman.org

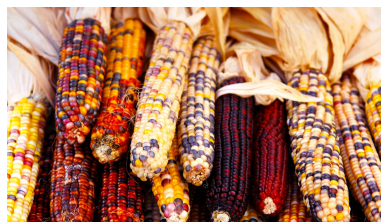

Two significant and exciting events in the life of the Fellowship occurred in October. The first was the UUFB 60th anniversary celebration that was the focus of our service on October 13. After the service we gathered in the Social Hall for food, drink and conversation about our past, present and future. Then the following Sunday we held an installation ceremony for our new Coordinator of Religious Education, Beth Witte, during the service. If you haven't met and introduced yourself to Beth yet, I encourage you to do so. And please remind her of your name each time you talk with her over the coming weeks. There are a lot of names she has to learn and remember and that can be challenging.

As November gets underway another important event in the life of the Fellowship begins. Every year at about this time our annual pledge drive kicks off. Those of you who braved the weather and icy roads to attend the service on October 27 heard me talk about the significance the annual pledge drive holds in the ongoing life of the Fellowship. When members and friends of the congregation make financial pledges, the Finance Committee and the Board are able to get a reasonably good idea of what the budget can be for the coming year. Every contribution, no matter the amount, makes it possible for us to fund the many aspects of Fellowship. But whether you are able to make a financial contribution or not, I encourage all members and active friends to turn in a signed pledge form. Doing so lets us know that we can look forward to your continuing involvement with the Fellowship in the year ahead.

There is also an important ongoing activity that deserves mention here. After the congregation voted to approve the last line of the new UUFB Mission Statement this past January, the Board set its attention on establishing a new Vision Statement. To that end a Vision Task Force, made up of Jo Anne Troxel, Neil Gregersen, Jack Fisher, Mariah Rundberg and Andrew Kestly, was established in the spring. This group of folks are hard at work. They have been exploring how the UUFB 2005 to 2015 Vision was created. They have been learning about the purpose and scope of Vision Statements. And they have been getting information from members and friends of the congregation, both current and past, about what people understand and/or imagine what the vision of this Fellowship has been, is currently, and ought to be for the future. If you would like to share your thoughts on what our vision might include for the years ahead there are yellow sticky notes on the stand under the photos of UUFB's ministers in the Social Hall. Instead of answering the specific question on the sticky note feel free to write what you believe our focus needs to be for the future, whether that is 10 years or 60 years. After writing your thoughts, post your sticky note on one of the "cloud" poster boards that are on the Social Hall walls. In the coming months the members of this Task Force will be putting together a draft Vision Statement for all of us to consider.

These are exciting times for our Fellowship as we look back and appreciate where we have come from, as we make changes that allow us to provide for the ongoing needs of children and families who are important in the life of the congregation today, and as we create the Vision Statement that will act as the guidepost on our path into the future.

Religious Exploration Corner

First, I want to thank everyone for the warm welcome. While I have been fighting the reality that winter is coming (or already here) and begrudgingly trying to find all my warm clothes again, I have also been filled with excitement, eagerness and gratitude for the opportunity to serve as your Coordinator of Religious Education. I am looking forward to connecting with all of you and wanted to share a bit about me.

I grew up in a suburb north of Milwaukee, Wisconsin and attended St. Norbert College, a small liberal arts school outside of Green Bay where I pursued a degree in mathematics and secondary education. After I graduated, I joined an AmeriCorps program, (a domestic version of the Peace Corps), and was assigned to a location in Columbus, Ohio. There, I taught middle and high school math and was responsible for organizing a service-learning program.

After a few years of teaching, I was eager to expand beyond the four walls of a traditional classroom. I had been attending a local UU church and learned about The Mountain Retreat and Learning Center, a UU camp and retreat center in the Smoky Mountains. They had a residency position opening and I was longing for nature and ready for an adventure. I took a leap of faith and moved to North Carolina where I participated in The Mountains's residency program and later accepted a position as their Summer Camp Director and Youth Programs Coordinator.

A few years later, I ended up returning to Ohio where I worked for a school district on an island in Lake Erie developing a field station program for area students. I rejoined the UU Church in Columbus and volunteered to facilitate their young adult groups and participated in the Wellspring program, a spiritual development program for adults.

Last year, I moved to Bozeman to be closer to family. My parents lived in Bozeman in the 70's and have recently returned to retire. While I was growing up, I spent many summers visiting family in Bozeman and Missoula and always dreamed of living out west someday. I am thrilled to be here and excited to be working with the youth in the congregation.

Board Report

~ Tonya Stevens, UUFB Board President
stevens_tonya@msn.com

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE BOARD for October 2019

First of all, the Board would like to recognize the children, parents, and RE sponsors who worked to raise money and awareness for Cardboard Box City, an annual fundraising for Family Promise (see that story elsewhere in this newsletter). Many of them spent the night outside during a very cold October 5th to experience conditions homeless families must endure. We thank them for being willing to expose themselves to these hardships and hope they will carry that experience in their hearts.

BUDGET

The Board began their work month October 8 with an extremely productive budget work session. Our new treasurer Janine Roberts did a great job producing the first draft we needed to debate. We were wearing rose-colored glasses as we put together the hopes-and-dreams estimates. We appreciated that committees were able to submit their budget requests before we began the work.

60TH ANNIVERSARY WEEKEND

Rev. Tandi Rogers, UUFB's regional contact at the UUA Pacific Western Region, agreed to come to Bozeman to give our 60th Anniversary Sunday Service. She arrived Friday, October 11th, and met with the Board that night for dinner and discussion. She met with me and our Vice-President, Peg Wherry, for separate conversations. Then Saturday, October 12th, she led a work session with our Vision Team. The Board was invited to sit as "flies on the wall" to listen, but, of course, we couldn't help but chime in when she gave us the opportunity. Please see Mariah Rundberg's report in this newsletter about that meeting.

We all appreciated Rev. Tandi's remarks on Sunday, October 13th, as part of a bang-up celebration that was put on by our 60th Anniversary team (please remember to thank all who worked hard to make it happen).

LEADERSHIP AND GOVERNANCE

The De-Mystifying Leadership workshop led by Peg Wherry and Elizabeth Rose on October 19th attracted 20 participants from this congregation, including most of the Board. Peg and Elizabeth led an eager group through an interactive and enjoyable 5-hour workshop that served us all well.

The UUA Pacific Western Region is offering "Leadership Experience 2020" this coming January. Peg Wherry along with 1-2 others (to be determined) will be attending this useful 3-day work session in Seattle.

On October 21st at a joint meeting of the Board and the Ministry Committee, Rev. Duffy presented his portfolio of his past year's most important work (please see his letter to the congregation for more on that). We continue to be grateful for his leadership and counsel.

NEW BOARD MEMBER

We said farewell to Duncan Chambers when he left the Board for health concerns in September. We are pleased to announce that Leona Poritz has agreed to fill the remainder of Duncan's term. She is a long-time member and Book Sale queen here who has previous Board experience. Thank you, Leona, for joining us!

PERSONNEL

The congregation welcomed Beth Witte as UUFB's new Coordinator of Religious Education on October 20th. Sandy Kindt is graciously working through the end of the month to help Beth learn the ropes in the RE classroom. The Board wishes to thank Sandy for stepping in to help us in our time of need. We also wish to thank the CRE Search Committee of Dana Murray, Neil Schwarzwald, Diane Knipfer, Rev. Duffy, and Valley Peters for finding this most excellent candidate to fill the role. We will be looking for Beth's input on hiring a nursery caregiver soon (but still need volunteers in the nursery in the meantime!).

BUILDING AND GROUNDS

The Board has been gradually spending the money left in our Construction Account. One of our most important projects is winterization of the building. With Mike Clark at the helm of the project, custom-designed gutter receptacles and downspouts have been created and installed. Heat tape must still be put in place along our roof valleys and gutters once Tyler Electric has installed an electrical outlet to plug in the tape. This project and the one below will be using much of the remainder of our Construction Account funds.

Paul McVey, Member-At-Large, and I along with others of the former AV task force are now considering a dual system for assistive hearing devices that uses both WiFi and FM transmission to headphone users in the congregation. Let Paul or Tonya know any thoughts you have on making sure all can hear what is going on in the sanctuary on Sundays. Stay tuned (pun intended) for more news on this potential addition to our sound system.

News from the Hospitality/Membership Committee

New Member Welcoming Ceremony

It is always very special to welcome new folks into our fellowship! The fall ceremony this year will be held on Sunday, Nov. 24, during the service. Membership is open to anyone who has been a member of another UU Congregation, and to anyone who has attended an Orientation session with us, either this fall or a previous time. If you were intending to become a member, but missed the Orientation on Oct. 20, you may contact Rev. Duffy or any member of the Hospitality Membership Committee.

If you are planning to become a member, please let us know at least a week before the ceremony so we will have time to have you listed in the Order of Service that day along with a short biography that will help us all get to know you better. We will send you information about the ceremony when we know your intentions.

Coffee Cup Clean-Up for Everyone

Our committee works to clean up the beverage offerings and the social hall following services. It makes our job so much easier if you will empty what's left in your cup into the coffee can on the table by the cups and put your cup in the bin on the cart.

If you stay at a meeting following the service, or have coffee during the week, please rinse your cup out in the sink in the kitchen and place it in the dirty cup tray which should be on the counter to the right of the sink. Dried coffee residue often doesn't come clean. Thanks so much for your help on this!

Did you know? Glass Recycling at UUFB

By Carolyn Widman

Since March, the Environmental Task Force has collected approximately 2,200 pounds of glass on 4th Sunday Glass Recycling. That's just over a ton of glass and a good metric to see how we at UUFB have directly and beneficially impacted our planet!

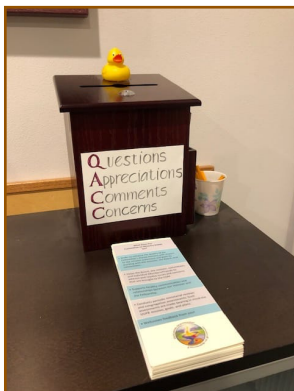

- A ton of natural resources is saved for every ton of recycled glass.
- One ton of carbon dioxide is reduced for every six tons of recycled glass used in the manufacturing process.
- Glass bottle and jars are 100% recyclable and can be used endlessly without loss in quality and purity.
- Industry purchases 3.35 million tons of recycled glass annually.
- 80% of all recycled glass containers are re-melted in furnaces and used for the manufacturing of new glass containers.

We take the glass collected at UUFB to We Recycle Montana in Four Corners to be crushed into bits in preparation for transport to Salt Lake City. The company reports that the crushed glass is currently used in manufacturing fiberglass, for use in sandblasting, and as an ingredient in concrete and tile. Recycled glass is also used as an ingredient in countertops, filtration systems, astroturf and last but not least, making new glass containers.

We Recycle Montana is the umbrella business for 3 recycling brands: Four Corners Recycling, Full Circle Biofuels, Full Circle Recycling. Besides recycling the standard consumer items of #1 and #2 plastics, tin, steel, and cardboard, We Recycle Montana also recycles lead batteries, automobiles, business cardboard, metals, and fryer oil. They service a large area of southwest Montana to include Gallatin, Park, Madison and Meagher counties as well as Yellowstone National Park! The bins at local businesses for free consumer drop off are also part of We Recycle Montana's service.

So many thanks for your part in the "recycle" part of the Reduce, Recycle and Reuse mission of UUFB. We also personally thank you for being diligent about bringing clean unbroken bottles for collection. See you and your glass on the next 4th Sunday!

The QACC Box is for you!

Do you have Questions, Appreciations, Comments, or Concerns (QACCs)? The Committee on Ministry (COM) welcomes it all! Submit your QACCs! Look for the box with the duck on the table in the social hall. The COM reviews submissions at our monthly meetings.

If you have been active in the fellowship for 6 months or more and can volunteer, please contact the LRE committee at cre@uufbozeman.org with the dates you wish to volunteer, or see the sign-up sheet in the social hall.

Arts Bazaar Volunteers Needed for November 9

We need people to help with: distribution of flyers, set up on Friday Nov. 8., clean up on Nov. 9, people to attend stations, bake sale food donations, and vendors.
