Rev. Margo: Today we begin a new year of Children's Religious Exploration. Not with teaching, but with blessing.

Congregation: We, the congregation, commission our children's teaching staff to the tasks of wonder, and challenge. May your classes be a joy. May they be spiritually fulfilling. May they be places of growth. And we thank you for your care.

Rev. Margo: And to the children, Beth, & Christine, may you grow together in knowledge, and kindness, and wisdom.

Beth and Christine: It is teaching that we receive and in using our talents that we ourselves learn.
