Movie Night: "The Singing Revolution" – January 26

The Social Justice Action Committee will host a free showing of the documentary "The Singing Revolution," an inspiring film tracing the role of singing in the Estonian independence movement from 1987 – 1991. Estonia, which achieved independence from the Soviet Union with no bloodshed, had a "song festival" tradition dating from 1869, attracting crowds of hundreds of thousands and combined choirs of 20,000 or more on stage. In the age of glasnost (openness), singing became a unifying and energizing form of national resistance. Estonia is now a member of NATO and the European Union, thus a key US ally. The film will be shown at the Fellowship at 5:00 p.m. on January 26, 2025. There can be discussion afterwards for those so inclined. Handouts and light refreshments will be provided. (Beverages must be in screw-top bottles or sealable travel mugs.)

Calling All Lay Leaders! – February 9

Veteran, rookie and wanna-be lay leaders: we'll gather February 9 after the service for a review of setup, putting together the script, working with guest speakers, and what's generally expected - and not expected - of lay leaders. We'll also discuss how you can use your creativity to help create the content of the services (encouraged but optional!). In our efforts to continually improve the quality of our services we have made several changes that we hope will be welcomed. We'd love to see anyone who is interested in learning about lay leading but is not sure whether they're ready. There will be snacks! For more information, please contact Lisa T. at lisa.trankley@gmail.com.

Join Our Choir!

Join our choir led by Megan Makeever! All skill levels welcome. Connect, express, and spread joy through communal singing. Email meganmakeever@gmail.com to join our e-mail list!
