

As Unitarian Universalists we covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Inspired by many sources, we seek truth and grow in spirit.

Our Living Traditions include:

- Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life;
- Words and deeds of prophetic women and men which challenge us to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion, and the transforming power of love;
- Wisdom from the world's religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life;
- Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves;
- Humanist teachings, which counsel us to heed the guidance of reason and the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit.
- Spiritual teachings of earth-centered traditions, which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.

Children’s Religious Exploration (RE) Information: Our programs include children of all ages. Children ages 4 to 12 are welcome to join RE class in the large classroom in the back of the building. We currently do not offer nursery service, but if you have a child under 4, please grab a busy bag and use the nursery room as a calming space. For more information about the program or if you have questions, please get in touch with the Religious Exploration Coordinator at cre@uufbozeman.org.

Upcoming Service

March 29, 2026 • "Ending Silence: Becoming an Active Bystander" with Social Justice Action Committee

In our UU principles, we covenant to affirm and promote the inherent worth and dignity of every person. Yet, when we are in a conversation and we hear a comment that harms another, we aren’t always sure how to react, how to help the harmed person, and how to prevent further harm. In this service, presented by the Social Justice Action Committee, we’ll explore practical ways to help us move with courage and compassion from passive witness to an active bystander, and truly express that we are a welcoming congregation to all.

Welcome! If you are visiting, we invite you to fill out a GUEST CARD you will find in the seatback in front of you. Please join us after the service for coffee, tea, and conversation.

As a “Welcoming Congregation,” the UUFB seeks to be fully inclusive of gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender persons.
