

As Unitarian Universalists we covenant to affirm and promote:

- The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- Justice, equity, and compassion in human relations;
- Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

Inspired by many sources, we seek truth and grow in spirit.

Our Living Traditions include:

- Direct experience of that transcending mystery and wonder, affirmed in all cultures, which moves us to a renewal of the spirit and an openness to the forces which create and uphold life;
- Words and deeds of prophetic women and men which challenge us to confront powers and structures of evil with justice, compassion, and the transforming power of love;
- Wisdom from the world's religions which inspires us in our ethical and spiritual life;
- Jewish and Christian teachings which call us to respond to God's love by loving our neighbors as ourselves;
- Humanist teachings, which counsel us to heed the guidance of reason and the results of science, and warn us against idolatries of the mind and spirit.
- Spiritual teachings of earth-centered traditions, which celebrate the sacred circle of life and instruct us to live in harmony with the rhythms of nature.

Upcoming Service

July 26, 2026 • "What's Love Got to Do with It?" with UUFB Members at Bozeman Pond Park Pavilion

Join us for service on Sunday, July 26, at the Bozeman Pond Park pavilion, where lay leader Sandra O. will lead a participatory service titled "What's Love Got to Do with It?" Inspired by the General Assembly worship service and our shared UU commitment to love, Sandra invites everyone to bring a poem, short reading, personal story, song, or piece of art that reflects what love means to them. If you would like to share something during the service, please limit your contribution to about three minutes and email Sandra in advance. We hope you'll join us for this meaningful morning of reflection, inspiration, and community.

Welcome! If you are visiting, we invite you to fill out a GUEST CARD you will find in the seatback in front of you. Please join us after the service for coffee, tea, and conversation.

As a "Welcoming Congregation," the UUFB seeks to be fully inclusive of gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender persons.
